

2011 Expanding Your Horizons Conference

Celebrating Milestones of Women In Science

Saturday March, 5, 2011
8:30 a.m. - 3:15 p.m.
University of San Diego

The Expanding Your Horizons Conference is a unique opportunity for girls in grades 6 through 10 to engage in hands-on workshops in science, technology, engineering and math led by San Diego's top biologists, chemists, computer scientists, doctors, engineers, forensic scientists, geologists, physicists, medical specialists, and veterinarians. The 2011 EYH Conference includes:

- Undergraduate level female mentors to lead and inform conference participants.
- Attendance at a keynote session, three interactive workshops and a closing activity (full day's participation required!)
- Lunch catered by USD, the official host of the EYH 2011 Conference.
- Free transportation from regional sites throughout San Diego County (if needed).
- An opportunity to meet new friends with similar interests!

($20 registration fee includes lunch, t-shirt & registration materials - fee waivers available!)
